RE/MAX FINE PROPERTIES
REALTOR®

Christine Espinoza was born for the real estate business. The daughter of a broker who mentored her during the formative first years of her career, this top-performing agent combines decades of experience with a growing social media presence, including 10,000 enthusiastic followers on TikTok, to connect with clients countrywide.

“I’ve been selling real estate for 25 years and I still get excited helping my clients find their perfect home,” says Christine, whose unparalleled knowledge of Scottsdale comes from having lived here since childhood. “I have a keen sense of matching my clients with the right neighborhood very quickly after we meet. I’m also very creative and enjoy coming up with unique ways to market the properties I list for sale. Each house has a story, I try to uncover that story and create a marketing plan around the special aspects of each property.”

The sayings “What doesn’t kill you, makes you stronger” and “Where there’s a will, there’s a way” define Christine’s life and her career. “I don’t give up when things get hard, and when a challenge presents itself, I know I can figure out a solution. My clients can count on me to do what I say I’m going to, and to take care of them every step of the way.”

Balancing ambition with compassion for others, Christine volunteers with charitable organizations on behalf of the homeless, injured veterans and more. During the pandemic, she sponsored a “Shred-A-Thon” to collect 15 boxes of new and gently used blankets for a local homeless shelter.
